Young chosen as a Top 100

FOR The Frederick News-Post

Mar 30, 2015

Young

BALTIMORE — The Daily Record named Marlene B. Young, president of the Delaplaine Foundation Inc., to its 2015 listing of Maryland's Top 100 Women, the 20th anniversary of the award program.

The Daily Record began Maryland's Top 100 Women in 1996 to recognize outstanding achievement by women demonstrated through professional accomplishments, community leadership and mentoring.

Nearly 400 women were nominated for the statewide honor. A panel of judges made up of business professionals and past Maryland's Top 100 Women winners from throughout Maryland reviewed the applications and after holding two rounds of judging, selected this year's honorees based on career history, professional and community involvement, corporate and nonprofit board memberships, and mentoring experience.

"The 2015 Maryland's Top 100 Women honorees inspire those around them by their actions, their words and their deeds," said Suzanne Fischer-Huettner, publisher. "They share an amazing talent for balancing many facets of their lives. They have achieved personal success, but they also contribute to bettering the communities in which they work and live. And they are active mentors of the younger generation of businesspeople. The Daily Record is pleased to honor them."

The awards will be presented at a cocktail reception 5 p.m. Monday, May 4, at Joseph Meyerhoff Symphony Hall, 1212 Cathedral St., Baltimore. The awards will be presented at 6:30 p.m. followed by a dessert reception. Winners will be profiled in a magazine that will be inserted into the Friday, May 8, edition of The Daily Record and available online at www.TheDailyRecord.com.
